ORIGINAL

) APPLICATION OF THE ALLIANCE FOR SOLAR CHOICE (TASC) FOR LEAVE TO INTERVENE

Pursuant to A.A.C. R14-3-105, The Alliance for Solar Choice ("TASC") hereby makes its Application for Leave to Intervene (the "Application") in the above captioned proceedings (the "Proceeding").

TASC is a solar energy advocacy association. TASC's membership represents the majority of the nation's rooftop solar market and includes SolarCity, Sungevity, Sunrun, Verengo, and Solar Universe. These companies are important stakeholders in Arizona's rooftop solar industry. Additionally, TASC's members are responsible for thousands of residential, school, church, government and commercial solar installation in the State. Together, TASC's members have brought hundreds of jobs and many tens of millions of dollars of investment to Arizona's cities and towns.

TASC is entitled to intervene because TASC is directly and substantially affected by the Proceeding, TASC's intervention will not unduly broaden the issues presented and no other party adequately represents TASC's interests in this matter. Additionally, TASC's intervention will assist the Commission to consider how the proposed utility ownership of distributed generation would affect the public interest. In support of this Application, TASC submits the following information.

I. TASC is Directly and Substantially Affected

In the Proceedings, Tucson Electric Power ("TEP") proposes to expand the services and products it offers through its regulated entity and to compete directly with TASC member companies in providing rooftop solar to Arizona residents.

II. TASC's Intervention can Assist the Commission

TASC is uniquely well positioned to offer insight to assist the Commission in its evaluation of the issues in the Proceedings.

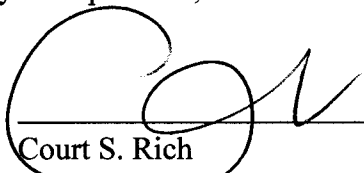

III. TASC's Intervention Will Not Expand These Proceedings

Granting TASC intervenor status will not delay this proceeding, unduly broaden the issues, or prejudice other parties to the Docket.

Service of all documents or pleadings should be made to TASC counsel at the following address:
